

Nathaniel Peat Summary of Bio

Nathaniel is a man of many talents and achievements, his most compelling trait being his dedication to helping young people rise above crime and make a positive difference in their own lives as well as in the lives of others in their community. In 2006 he founded the company The Safety Box and has since grown the company from strength to strength with ambitions to reach schools worldwide. In 2007 he was the first double award winner of the Enterprising Young Brits competition. 2008 saw him feature on the BBC's The Last Millionaire TV series, which took 12 of Britain's most successful young entrepreneurs and dropped them into six of the world's most exciting and demanding cities, to make money from scratch in just five days. Nathaniel was very successful and created a business in Egypt starting with only 30 Egyptian pounds that by the end of the week had made a profit of nearly 3,000 Egyptian pounds making him and his business partner the winners for that week.

In 2009 Nathaniel was drafted into the Courvoisier Observers Future 500 Next Generation List and later that year he travelled to Jamaica along with 30 young people from the UK where he spoke at Jamaica's first Youth Diaspora conference. During his visit, he met the Prime Minister of Jamaica Bruce Golding, the Governor General and the Minister for Foreign Affairs and Trade, amongst other senior politicians and influential business people. As a result of his visit strong links were developed, and now the Government is interested in taking his business into Jamaica for 2012. In 2010 Nathaniel represented Great Britain as a youth delegate for the G20 Toronto Young Entrepreneur's Summit in Canada and was also featured in the under 40's section of the 2011 JP Morgan Black Power List of Britain's most influential black people.

In July 2011 Nathaniel received an honorary award from Brunel University as the Alumnus of the year 2011 which was given to him by the Vice Chancellor Prof Chris Jenks. As a qualified pilot, engineer, entrepreneur, martial arts expert, professional speaker, mentor and academic his life continues to inspire many wishing to further themselves in life.
